

Old School, Bletsoe, 1970

The school closed in 1962, and children were taken by bus to Riseley. Following closure the school stood empty for several years, despite several attempts to purchase it for use as a village hall, from the eccentric and reclusive Lord St John. It was eventually sold for conversion to a private house.

EB212

Old School & School House, Bletsoe 2000
EB233 (David Baker)