

Bletsoe Church from the north-east, Thomas Fisher, watercolour, c1812

The thatched cottages in the distance to the right of the church are on the other side of the (now) Avenue and probably were the predecessors of 39-44 Bletsoe, themselves demolished in the mid 1960s and replaced with St Mary's Close

EB15 (BARS Slide no 665)

Modern view for comparison with Thomas Fisher c1812 pre-restoration

Note steep-pitched chancel roof, 1860s vestry (re-roofed 2018), two windows in place of one in N wall of N transept (St John Chapel)