

John StJohn, Baron StJohn of Bletsoe

The St Johns today and yesterday

Lord Anthony St John, one of the surviving hereditary members of the House of Lords, maintains an active interest in the village and supports the upkeep of the family mausoleum in the church. He is shown (top) in the church with the Rowlands family and (below left) in charitable fund-raising marathon mode. One of his 18th century ancestors, John St John, Baron St John of Bletsoe, is shown in the portrait.
