

The Oakley Hunt passing St Mary's Church, Bletsoe c1930

The cottages on the right, demolished in 1969, stood on the site of what is now St Mary's Close and were unusual in that each pair of cottages shared a front door and a staircase. Notice the abundant patching of the rendering on the central row of cottages.

EB131