

The 'Bletsoe triangle' c1905: parish church the other side of the junction between (now) left Coplowe Lane, right High Street / the Avenue, foreground North End Lane Photograph by noted prolific local photographer Sweetman for postcard with his text on reverse side dated October 16 1914 below. "This is one of the photographs I took when we were away in August. It is looking towards the church and just outside the Rectory gate."

PADDINGTON W.

POST CARD

PM

POSTALE POSTKARTE

Communication—Mittheilungen—Correspondance

Address—Adresse

Miss R. Don
Blanchland
Riding Mill on Tyne Northumberland

F. S. Stephen
Oct 18th /14
Please knit up all the wool
I think it will be all right and too thick.
I am very sorry to hear about the bee sting, it must have been most painful but I hope M. is quite well again by now.
You must be getting on well & busy with the work I am sure you are much busier than ever. I am sure you are working too hard.
This is one of the photographs
I took when we were away in August
It is looking towards the Church & you outside the Rectory gate. E. J. S.